

ISAAC ROMANZO FAUSETT
AND SAMANTHA MECHAM

Isaac Romanzo Fausett was born December 19, 1853, at Provo, Utah, son of William McGee Fausett, who was born January 6, 1807, in Tennessee and came to Utah in 1851 with the Alexander Stevens company. His mother was Matilda Caroline Butcher. Isaac married Samantha Mecham on March 3, 1874, at Provo. She was a daughter of Lewis Mecham and Lydia Knight Wells. Romanzo died May 27, 1914, at Heber, Utah, and Samantha died January 2, 1930, at Wallisburg.

William McGee Fausett was a bishop in Provo for 21 years. Romanzo was a very gentle and kind person. He worked among the sick and pulled lots of teeth, as he was the only man in the valley who had a pair of "turnkeys." He was a good farmer and raised lots of apples. Always had a lovely garden.

Patriarch Thomas Hicken and Wives

Patriarch Thomas Hicken was the only child of Thomas Hicken, of Woodhouse, Leicestershire, England, and his wife, Ann Ward. He was born June 15, 1826, at Burton-on-the-Wolds, Leicestershire, England. His father was a Grenadier soldier in the British army about 20 years; fought in the Battle of Waterloo, and was awarded a silver and also a gold medal for meritorious service. These medals are still in the possession of members of the family in America. He also received a pension for his services in the British army.

When Thomas, Jr., was four, his mother died, and he lived with his father's sister Elizabeth, who was married to Robert Cumberland. They had no children. His opportunities to attend school were scarce, but he learned the stocking weaving trade early.

When about 19, he joined The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saint, being baptized February 15, 1845, by Thomas Effield. About this time, August, 1845, in the Whitwick Church, Leicestershire, England, he married Catherine Fewkes, daughter of Benjamin Fewkes and Culloden Ann Toon. Catherine was a stocking weaver, and though not strong, was an industrious woman and good housekeeper, very kind and affectionate in her disposition. She enjoyed some of the gifts promised those who accept the gospel. She was a very good seamstress and taught her daughter. Together they made men's suits, dresses, hats and shoes. She died at Heber City on May 18, 1879, after an extended illness. She was mother of seven children.

In 1847, Thomas Hicken was ordained an Elder by Crandall Dunn and sustained as president of the Whitwick Branch of the LDS Church. He presided over this branch until January 1, 1851, when he emigrated to America.

He and his wife and three small children, Elizabeth, Orson, and Addison, crossed the Atlantic on the sailing vessel "Ellen," together with John Crook and Henry Chatwin. Due to an accident the ship put in at North Wales for repair where they remained 18 days. They finally arrived in New Orleans on March 17, 10 weeks after setting sail. By May 2 they had arrived at Council Bluffs. In the spring of 1852, Thomas and another man secured a yoke of oxen, two yoke of cows and a wagon to make the trip across the plains. They came with the Eli B. Kelsey company and made the trip without any serious trouble.

Thomas Hicken resided in Provo seven or eight years, where he built two houses. While here he was active in military affairs, and served in the Black Hawk War. He moved to Heber City in 1860, where he was ordained a High Priest by Elisha Everett, Sr. In 1863 he was called as a special missionary to Summit and Morgan counties to advocate the Word of Wisdom. He was a diligent Church worker and held many offices in ecclesiastical and civil affairs, among them being presiding teacher in Heber City for eight years, and first counselor in Wasatch Stake High Priests' Quorum.

In 1880 he was ordained a patriarch by Daniel H. Wells and John Henry Smith. His personal record noted that he had given 466 blessings.

He was a fluent preacher and an inspiration wherever he went. At various times, in fast meetings, he was given the gift of speaking in tongues. He also had the gift of healing through the power of the priesthood, and many he administered to were healed in this way. At one time a very miraculous healing took place. A dear neighbor, Christie Giles, was badly afflicted with a very large goiter that covered her entire neck in front. One Sunday morning she was very sick with it and while Patriarch Hicken was out doing his morning chores he was strongly impressed to go to her home. Seeing her condition, he got another elder, Brother Duke, and they went to her home and administered to her and she improved almost immediately. That same day she was prayed for in priesthood meeting and soon after, the goiter was entirely gone. Aunt Christie Giles bore testimony of this healing many times.

All hours of the day or night he was called out to administer to the sick. He took great pains to teach and train his family in the principles of the gospel, was of a gentle and kind disposition, with always a comforting word for those in distress.

As a farmer he raised flax and with the help of his wife prepared it for spinning, and furnished thread for all the community and clothing for his children.

In 1862, as polygamy was being practiced, Thomas Hicken married Mrs. Jane Clotworthy, a widow with four children, and helped her raise her family. Her children had great respect for him and his first wife, and his children respected the Clotworthy family.

He also married Margaret Powell as a plural wife in 1865, and they had five children. She was born in 1847 at Tipton, Staffordshire, England, coming to Utah in 1864 with her parents on the ship "General McClelland." They crossed the plains in Captain Joseph Rollin's train, walking all the way and arriving in Heber City on October 4, 1864. She was an active Church worker of great faith and had a strong testimony of the gospel. She helped with the sick and those in distress, as well as caring for the dead. For 12 years she was president of the Heber Second Ward Primary, and was an accomplished seamstress, making beautiful wedding dresses, hats and bonnets. She loved flowers and always raised a beautiful flower garden. She died June 18, 1925, in Salt Lake City, and was buried in Heber City Cemetery.

In February, 1915, Thomas Hicken fell, and injured his hip, contracted pneumonia and died March 2, 1915, at the age of 88. His posterity in 1954, as nearly as could be determined, numbered nearly 900 persons.

His children were as follows:

He also had the gift of healing through the power of the priesthood, and many he administered to were healed in this way. At one time a very miraculous healing took place. A dear veteran. He was a farmer, and hauled milk, butter and beef to the mines in Park City, milking 50 cows at that time. When they moved back to Heber he farmed, went into the cattle business, and into the meat market with his younger brother, John.

Mrs. Hicken was president of the West Ward Primary several years, was counselor to Joannah E. Jensen in the West Ward Relief Society and also Stake Relief Society. She was also president of the West Ward Relief Society, ward district teacher, and a Wasatch Stake missionary. Her life was one of devotion, not only for her family, but to all mankind. Many stories could be told of the help she gave others when they were in trouble. She washed and laid out, helped make clothes and dressed the dead many times. She impressed people with her neatness and dignity. Her language was never vulgar, but gentle always. And she had a great influence for good over her family and associates, living in such a way that no evil could be spoken of her. She improved herself constantly by reading a chapter from Church books each evening before going to bed.

Addison Hicken was of a kindly disposition, a good neighbor, and a faithful Latter-day Saint. He was an earnest worker in both civil and ecclesiastical affairs, and was loved by all who knew him.

He and his wife spent their last days working in the temple. Addison died of a stroke at Salt Lake City, December 7, 1924. His wife died March 7, 1933, in Salt Lake City. They were buried in Heber City Cemetery.

Their children are: Rhoda Elizabeth, Sarah Katherine, Lottie Malinda, Addison Pratt, William Thomas, Joseph Claudius, Elijah Moulton, Olive May, Minnie Elthora, John Errol, and Lola Bell.

JOSEPH AND JANE CLYDE HATCH

Joseph Hatch was born July 26, 1854, in Lehi, son of Abram and Permelia Jane Lott Hatch. He married Jane Clyde, daughter of George W. and Jane Clyde, on August 16, 1875, in the Endowment House in Salt Lake City. She died October 28, 1908, and he married Madie Hyde Sears in May, 1910. He died in May of 1933.

Joseph Hatch was one of Heber City's leading businessmen for more than 50 years. He was only a boy of 13 when he came with his father from Lehi to make a new home in Provo Valley. He drove the family livestock from Lehi to Heber, a three-day task. He finished his early education in Heber and then attended the old Morgan Business College in Salt Lake City, where he graduated in business. Returning to Heber, he helped his mother in their store, and through his efforts built up the business, A. Hatch & Co., to one of Heber's leading businesses. When his father died, in 1912, the business was reorganized and Joseph opened a coal yard and warehouse and worked in the wholesale business. He was also interested in mining, farming, stock raising, irrigation and politics. He always encouraged young people to seek an education. Fond of small children, he always had candy, a penny or something for all the children he met. Jane Clyde Hatch came to Heber in 1860 with her mother and family from Springville. She was an excellent seamstress and cook, and had a lovely singing voice. She was known as a splendid homemaker and always kept her home in order and her children neat and clean. She did much charity work and helped others in time of trouble. A good manager, she found the time necessary to do the things she desired to do. After her death, in 1908, Joseph Hatch married Madie Hyde Sears, a widow of some years. She moved to Heber and made her home in the valley until Mr. Hatch's death, in 1933. After that she lived with her two daughters, Hazel and Sally, in Los Angeles, but made frequent visits to Heber, where she was well known and respected. She died April 25, 1940.

Children of Joseph and Jane Clyde Hatch:

Joseph Hatch, Jr.
Emma Hatch (married William Russel Wherritt).

Abram Hatch.
May Hatch (married Orson Hyde).
George Hatch.
Roy Hatch.
Floyd F. Hatch.
Glen S. Hatch.

ADDISON ALONZO AND JEAN LINDSAY HICKEN

Addison Alonzo Hicken was born in Heber, Utah, July 10, 1878, to Orson and Emily Rasband Hicken. He married Jean Lindsay on December 13, 1905. She is the daughter of James and Agnes Watson Lindsay, and was born at Center Creek on March 17, 1886. To them were born three children: Morris, Velma and Emojean.

After Alonzo's death, February 12, 1942, Jean married William Horner in March, 1949. He died January 2, 1953.

Alonzo, or Lon, as he was called by everyone, was a farmer and stockman. He spent his early life helping his father on the farm and doing odd jobs, such as hauling wool from the Eastern sheep herds. This would take about a week to go and return to Heber. He drove a four-horse team hitched to a trailer wagon loaded high with wool sacks. The wool was shipped by train from Heber. He was a farmer and sheep and cattle raiser.

Jean has been an active worker in the Relief Society, and all things that needed her help. She lives in Heber City.

WILLIAM EATON HORNER JR.

William Eaton Horner, Jr., son of William Eaton Horner, Sr., and Jane Freeman Pea, was born at Salt Lake City, Utah, February 1, 1856. He married Amanda Jane Smith on September 29, 1879, at Heber City. She was the daughter of Thomas C. Smith and Sarah Frampton, and was born in Springville, Utah, July 12, 1859. William and Amanda lived in Heber, and to this union was born seven children.

At an early age, Mr. Horner lost the sight of his eyes, caused from a gun accident at the sawmill. Despite this handicap, he was very efficient as a bookkeeper and merchandise buyer for the A. Hatch & Co. store. He was very prominent in business affairs and was one of the leading stockmen of the community.

His wife, Amanda, was a loyal companion and devoted mother. People spoke of her as a good cook, her specialty being pies. She had a busy life, but found time to enjoy knitting and embroidery.

At the age of forty, the father of this happy family died, leaving his wife with the responsibility of rearing their six children. He left her with a good home, but her life was spent in hard work. She provided well for her family by doing many jobs, such as taking in washing and doing housework for other people.

For many years she was janitor of the first schoolhouse in the east part of town. Many cold winter nights found her and her children carrying coal that the school might be comfortable. She arose in the early morning hours to shovel the walks clear of snow by the time school commenced. Later, when the North School was built, she continued as janitor. Although her task was much greater, she was always found cheerful and happy, and was loved by all the school children. She died in Heber City on May 31, 1939, at the age of seventy-nine.

Children: Amanda Jane, William, Sarah Luella, Lenora May, Thomas C., Arthur, Maude Lorelia.

WILLIAM EATON HORNER SR.

William Eaton Horner, Sr., was born on March 2, 1807, in Adams County, Pennsylvania. He joined the Church, being baptized the 17th of November, 1836, in Washington County, Maryland, by Erastus Snow. He was ordained into the Ninth Quorum of Seventy in Nauvoo the 9th of October, 1844. He was the son of James and Margaret Horner, and lived in Nauvoo and was well acquainted with the Prophet Joseph Smith, and was one of his bodyguards. Some time before his death, the Prophet said to him: "Brother Horner, the time will come when I will not be here to lead this people and I want to tell you if you will follow the majority of the Twelve Apostles, who have a record of the Church, you will always be right."

William E. Horner was one of the earliest pioneers of Utah, crossing the plains in 1847. He spent part of his time freighting merchandise from St. Joseph, Missouri, to Utah, and also on to California in the summer and returning to St. Joseph in the winter.

In the winter of 1849 he, with others, became lost in a snowstorm and had his
